

Attunements & Grimoires of the Demons of Authority & Command

Posted on June 27, 2025 by Rhyon Hyroc

Rule Without Permission. Speak and the Room Bends.

There is a reason some people are followed without question, while others are ignored no matter how wise their words.

There is a current behind true leadership—a force that moves beneath the surface of charisma, decision-making, and presence.

It cannot be faked. It cannot be borrowed.

It must be embodied.

The Demons of Kingship—Paimon, Purson, Orias, and Bael—grant this embodiment. They do not instruct you in leadership.

They install it in your field.

This path is not about being liked, followed, or praised. It is about becoming unshakable.

Pain Points You May Know Too Well

This path exists because too many powerful minds and strong souls go unheard, unseen, or overruled. If any of this resonates, the time has come:

1. You lead with clarity, but others still override or ignore you.

You give solid advice, set boundaries, or offer vision—but people treat it as optional.

Demonic Solution: Paimon's attunement installs internal clarity and external command. When you speak, it lands. When you assert, it holds.

2. You feel resistance when you step into your natural authority.

Every time you try to lead—at work, in family, or even in spiritual settings—you feel challenged, dismissed, or subtly sabotaged.

Demonic Solution: Orias reshapes how others perceive you. His influence raises your status in unseen ways, drawing loyalty, favor, and admiration.

3. You have influence in private, but not in the moments that matter.

You're articulate and strong in solitude, but around certain people or under pressure, your voice softens or disappears.

Demonic Solution: Bael brings visibility where you choose and invisibility where needed. He sharpens your edge and quiets your fear of being seen or dismissed.

4. You know you could lead—but something unseen blocks you.

Whether it's past trauma, energetic interference, or ancestral patterns, your capacity to lead gets hijacked when you need it most.

Demonic Solution: Purson works through the unseen structures. He brings order to inner chaos and roots your leadership in stillness, not performance.

5. People take your ideas but ignore your presence.

Others present your vision, get promoted on your work, or rise in status while you're left undervalued.

Demonic Solution: Orias installs energetic prestige. You no longer need to argue your worth—people sense and respond to your elevated role.

6. You've played the supporter too long.

You've stabilized everyone else's life, held the emotional center of groups or relationships, but never claimed your own authority.

Demonic Solution: Purson teaches internal rulership. You stop anchoring others and start governing your domain. You become the gravitational force.

7. You fear the costs of stepping into visibility.

With visibility comes risk. Exposure. Criticism. You've stayed small to stay safe.

Demonic Solution: Bael and Orias teach strategic rulership. You become visible only where it serves your will, and invisible where it protects your sovereignty.

8. You've confused humility with powerlessness.

You've hidden your strengths to avoid appearing arrogant. Now, those strengths are forgotten—even by you.

Demonic Solution: Paimon restores your voice. You begin to walk with a tone and posture that says, “I belong here.” Others feel it. They follow it.

The Spirits Who Empower You

Paimon – King of Command, Language, and Sovereign Direction

His current crystallizes leadership through articulation, presence, and rulership. Paimon ensures others listen not just with ears—but with respect.

Purson – Master of Hidden Authority and Spiritual Intelligence

He governs the hidden infrastructure of kingship: insight, timing, access to power, and sovereign balance in chaos.

Orias – Duke of Social Rank, Prestige, and Recognition

He raises your perceived authority in both spiritual and worldly systems. Orias is the force behind promotions, favor, elevation, and titles that carry influence.

Bael – King of Strategic Invisibility and Leadership Control

Bael installs energy that speaks for you. He guides your visibility like a blade: shown only when effective, hidden when necessary.

The Attunement Cycle

Each demon is approached through a 21-day cycle of direct energetic alignment. Daily mantra practice and focused petition work is supported by seven remote rituals performed by the Terra Incognita Coven, designed to lock in the connection.

For each demon, you receive 20 real-world petition templates—clearly structured requests you can use to reshape life through presence, status, and command.

Once the cycle completes, the attunement is permanent.

No pact. No dependency. Just transformation.

This Is for You If:

- You've grown tired of not being taken seriously—even when you know your worth
- You want your presence to match your internal strength
- You feel ready to lead—but something keeps dimming your light
- You've supported others long enough. Now it's your turn to rise.
- You want power that doesn't scream—but that commands
- You no longer want to beg for authority. You want to embody it.

This path is available in 100 languages. No background in demonology is required.

You were not born to be invisible in your own kingdom.
You were not designed to follow forever.
Let Paimon, Purson, Orias, and Bael initiate you into sovereign command.

Enrollment is open.

Rise without apology. Rule without resistance.
