

Attunement & Grimoire of the Demons of Dream, Psyche, and Astral Vision

The Spirits Who Govern the Night, the Mind, and the Depths of Inner Sight

There are realms within you and around you that logic cannot reach—realms of intuition, dreams, symbols, and unspoken knowing. These places are ruled by ancient intelligences who do not shout their truths—they whisper them in vision, in presence, in the silent moments before waking.

The Demons of Dream, Psyche, and Astral Vision—Stolas, Marax, Bifrons, and Dantalion—hold the keys to these domains.

They do not offer escapism. They offer clarity within mystery, structure within vision, and the tools to walk between waking and dreaming without fear or confusion.

This is the sacred path of visionary mastery, intuitive command, and psychic sovereignty.

The Hidden Pain That Calls You Here

You've felt it:

- Dreams that seem more real than life, but slip away before you understand them
- A knowing that something is watching, guiding, or waiting in the unseen—but you don't know how to respond
- Moments of intuition you ignore, only to regret it later
- Ancestral presence, messages in dreams, or emotional energies that visit at night
- The desire to work with your inner world—not as a chaotic flood, but as a spiritual landscape
- Difficulty distinguishing imagination from real psychic messages
- Curiosity about altered states, vision, or lucid dreaming—but concern about safety or spiritual exposure

This path was made to answer these experiences.
Not to pacify them—but to give them structure, allies, and form.

The Four Who Walk with You

Stolas – Spirit of Celestial Vision and Starborn Knowledge

He governs wisdom drawn from the stars, from the depths of symbolic meaning and sacred pattern. Stolas opens the way for astrology, dream reading, and connection to the cosmic intellect that shapes unseen truth.

Marax (Morax) – Spirit of Psychic Mechanics and Subtle Infrastructure

He teaches the functional systems behind psychic perception—how energy, emotion, and thought operate within the spiritual body. Marax brings stability, calm, and herbal alignment for clearer insight.

Bifrons – Spirit of Death, Transition, and Ancestral Contact

Guardian of grave wisdom, Bifrons allows safe connection with the dead, exploration of past lives, and deeper work with what lies beneath consciousness. He governs sacred endings, necromantic rites, and astral movement.

Dantalion – Spirit of Thought, Emotion, and Mental Influence

He opens the emotional language of others. With Dantalion, you learn how to feel what others feel, see what they believe, and influence emotional and mental perception with spiritual precision and balance.

The Attunement Structure

Each demon is approached through a 21-day initiatory cycle, with daily mantra-based contact and focused energetic presence. Your part is simple but profound: three repetitions of the demon's mantra each day while focusing on their sigil. These spirits respond to consistency, clarity, and direct intention.

Each cycle is supported by seven distant rituals, performed by Terra Incognita masters, to open, reinforce, and protect your attunement.

You receive 20 ready-to-use petition templates per demon—practical, clearly worded requests for intuitive expansion, psychic protection, symbolic clarity, emotional decoding, dream control, and more.

These are not theoretical constructs.

They are real spiritual processes with tangible, measurable change over time.

Who This Is For

- You are sensitive, intuitive, or empathic—and seek control without shutting down
- You have intense dreams, visions, or inner knowledge and want to understand and direct it
- You are ready to explore astral travel, lucid dreaming, or ancestral contact safely and with precision
- You feel drawn to the spiritual realm but lack structure, protection, or trusted allies
- You want to build lasting psychic awareness without losing grounding or emotional center
- You are no longer satisfied with vague new-age intuition—you want clarity, power, and results
- You are ready to walk between realms and understand both shadow and light
- No prior magical experience is needed. All beliefs, identities, and orientations are welcome.
- Available in 100 languages
