

Attunements & Grimoires of the Demons of Love

Posted on June 27, 2025 by Rhyan Hyroc

Enter the Circle of Desire, Connection, and Erotic Dominion

Unlock the Forbidden Keys of Love, Seduction, and Emotional Command

There exists a current deeper than words and older than prayer—an invisible gravity that draws one soul toward another, shapes desire behind the eyes, and stirs longing in silence. This current is governed not by chance, but by force. By spirits whose dominion is love, attraction, emotional truth, and the intoxicating pulse of erotic influence.

These are the Demons of Love—Sallos, Sitri, Zepar, and Dantalion.

And when approached correctly, they do not bring chaos.

They bring clarity, sovereignty, magnetism, and connection that bends the invisible toward you.

This is not superstition. It is precision.

This is not fantasy. It is a system of real-world energetic change.

The Silent Agony Behind Desire

You've likely felt it already:

- A pull toward someone who never sees you.
- The ache of being forgotten by a lover who once burned with certainty.
- Years spent giving love, craving intimacy, only to receive confusion, coldness, or inconsistency.
- Charisma that flickers only in private, never igniting in the moments that matter.
- A pattern of being almost chosen—almost enough.
- The weight of emotional entanglement without power, vision, or clarity.
- The loneliness of connection without reciprocity.
- The exhaustion of trying to “heal” your love life with vague affirmations and passive hope.

This path was not created to comfort these wounds.

It was created to end them.

The Spirits Who Change the Equation

Sallos — Peaceful Passion and Lasting Union

He does not ignite fleeting lust. He creates sovereign bonding—calm, deep, mutual. Perfect for reconciliation, long-term connection, and healing the space between two hearts.

Sitri — Charisma, Beauty, and Sensual Awakening

She strips shame and hesitation from desire. Sitri empowers your visible magnetism, erotic confidence, and bold self-expression—so you are not just seen, but felt.

Zepar — Magnetic Seduction and Romantic Pull

Zepar sparks immediate attraction and irresistible presence. Ideal for magnetic encounters, building chemistry, reigniting a cold connection, or drawing attention without force.

Dantalion — Emotional Intelligence and Mental Influence

With him, confusion ends. Dantalion grants precise insight into the feelings of others, allowing you to shift emotional dynamics with empathy, elegance, and power.

How This Path Works

Each demon is accessed through a 21-day attunement cycle. In that time, you engage with the spirit through short daily mantra work and focused intention. Every attunement is reinforced by seven remote rituals performed by the Terra Incognita Coven to open, align, and protect your channel.

For each demon, you receive 20 petition templates—clear, specific requests for emotional healing, desire activation, connection repair, or magnetic embodiment. Each petition includes the precise wording and structure needed for real-world use.

The altar and sacred oils are optional. The results are not.

Once completed, the connection is permanent. You carry their presence forward—not as a concept, but as an active force in your life.

Who This Path Is For

- You've experienced desire that goes unreturned, even when you give everything.
- You feel overlooked in love, unseen in rooms where others effortlessly attract.
- You attract people who do not choose you, or repel those you want.
- You've lost a connection that once felt destined—and you don't know how to reclaim your power.
- You've grown numb to the idea of love ever truly working, despite how deeply you feel.
- You are not looking for vague affirmations—you want spiritual force, aligned action, and real results.
- You're ready to stop asking for permission to be chosen—and become the one who chooses.
- You are prepared to engage spirit not for fantasy, but for transformation.

This is a path of presence, not dependency.
Of power, not performance.
