Reclaim the Power to Shape Minds, Direct Words, and Guide Social Currents

In every conversation, in every glance, in every negotiation or performance, there is a subtle undercurrent: influence. It is not just about speaking—it's about being heard. It's not just about ideas—it's about alignment of perception, emotion, and subtle command.

This realm is ruled by demons who do not scream or demand. They whisper behind the eyes of others, structure the flow of dialogue, and grant presence that shapes the outcome before words even begin.

These are the Demons of Influence: Orobas, Vual, Glasya-Labolos, and Agares.

Together, they do not merely help you speak.
They make your voice a force.
They do not make people agree.

They make people listen.

This is a path of refined persuasion, energetic diplomacy, and verbal precision—through structured, spirit-led attunement.

The Hidden Frustration Behind Influence

You've felt it:

- Saying the right things and still being misunderstood.
- Watching others get ahead through charisma or control, while you go unheard.
- Feeling unseen in leadership, undercut in negotiations, or overlooked socially.
- Struggling to make your value felt, even when your work speaks for itself.
- Being misread, misquoted, or dismissed in moments that matter most.
- Hesitating in speech because you don't trust your impact—then watching opportunity slip.
- A deep sense that your voice is present... but your power is not.

These demons do not hand you confidence.

They awaken the forces that ensure you are received—accurately, magnetically, and effectively.

The Spirits Behind the Voice

Orobas — Clarity, Truth, and Loyal Reception

The great corrector of misperception. Orobas reveals the truth behind intentions, guards against betrayal, and ensures you are received with loyalty, honor, and authenticity. Excellent for interviews, testimony, or leadership roles.

Vual — Diplomacy, Subtle Seduction, and Emotional Dialogue

A master of emotional language, Vual helps you shift conversations with empathy and elegance. Ideal for difficult discussions, romantic dialogues, or redirecting tensions toward peace or attraction.

Glasya-Labolas — Charisma, Influence, and Strategic Visibility

He governs fame, recognition, and social gravity. Glasya-Labolas helps you craft your public voice, develop strategic visibility, and activate a powerful, warlike charisma that draws both admiration and impact.

Agares — Language Mastery, Movement, and Persuasion Across Cultures

The demon of language acquisition, momentum, and intercultural dialogue. Agares enhances your ability to persuade across boundaries—useful in business, travel, legal cases, or public performance.

The Attunement Process

Each demon is approached through a 21-day attunement cycle, combining focused daily practice with the energetic transmission of their current. Through this path, you gain not only ritual connection—but lasting internal transformation of voice, presence, and perception.

Each cycle is supported by seven distant rituals performed by Terra Incognita masters to amplify your attunement and clear interference. Alongside the practice, you receive 20 powerful petition templates per demon—real-world examples of how to ask for assistance in persuasive speech, negotiation, social repair, and presence-building.

Once the cycle is complete, the demon remains with you—not as an external force to beg, but as an inner alignment to activate as needed.

Who This Path Is For

- Professionals whose insights go unnoticed while others dominate the room
- Entrepreneurs, artists, or leaders who struggle to magnetize clients, audiences, or allies
- People whose truth is often misunderstood or misrepresented
- Anyone in conflict or high-stakes conversations, needing elegant persuasive strength
- Lovers, diplomats, teachers, speakers—those who need their words to land
- Individuals ready to develop charisma that is not performative, but rooted in energetic influence
- Seekers who are done with hesitation, silence, or being ignored—and are ready to speak with force, and be heard with weight

Accessible in 100 languages, this path is designed for all backgrounds, identities, and levels of magical experience.

You've spoken enough.

You've waited enough.

You've watched others command the room, shape attention, and win by words—while your voice stayed caged in your chest.

It ends here.
