Ten Infernal Functions of Speed, Language, Territory, and Command

Initiation Structure and Overview

As the 21-day ritual cycle progresses, you will begin to feel the living current of Agares moving through your field—not only as heat, clarity, and momentum, but as a collection of precise spiritual powers. These powers are not abstract symbols. They are functional forces that anchor into your nervous system, auric body, and strategic awareness as you complete the daily mantra work and integrate the seven remote rituals performed by the Terra Incognita Coven.

In this lesson, you will be introduced to ten of Agares's confirmed core powers—each a doorway through which transformation will unfold. These powers do not wait for belief. They respond to structure, voice, and movement.

You are not asking Agares to act for you. You are learning how to act as one aligned with him.

1. Momentum Activation

Agares specializes in the reversal of delay. His current clears inertia, mental fog, procrastination, and psychic heaviness. Many initiates experience sudden urges to act, complete tasks, or initiate long-postponed moves. He opens movement not through pressure, but through ignition.

When this power activates, you may:

- Complete dormant tasks without effort

- Speak truth without planning
- Exit stagnating roles or dynamics
- Make decisions that have waited months
- Move forward—fast, and with clarity

Momentum is not force. It is movement with direction.

2. Command of Languages

Agares governs both spoken and magical language. He activates linguistic fluency, eloquence, and verbal weight. Whether learning new tongues, writing sacred scripts, or reclaiming your voice, his current sharpens your word into an instrument of will.

Signs this power is activating:

- Dreams of foreign alphabets
- Channeling or writing unknown symbols
- Speaking more clearly, even without trying
- Returning to linguistic studies with ease
- Spellwork gaining unexpected potency through voice

Agares reconfigures the way you speaks your reality into being.

3. Restoration of Lost Skills and Knowledge

One of Agares's most potent powers is the retrieval of what was forgotten, abandoned, or forcibly lost. This may include talents, knowledge, creative drives, or psychic abilities once buried under trauma, shame, or fear.

This power often appears through:

- Sudden recall of ideas or information
- Resurfacing of forgotten passions
- Reconnection with languages, movement, or music
- Remembering who you were before spiritual “collapse”
- Returning to projects with renewed mastery

What you thought was gone is not. It is simply waiting to be re-walked.

4. Territorial Command

Agares rules over the land—physical and psychic. He installs dominion, protects territory, and helps you claim or reclaim home, property, space, or presence. He also dissolves energetic trespassers or those trying to claim what is not theirs.

You may experience:

- A desire to clean, redecorate, or seal your space
- Resolution of housing issues or property conflicts
- Expulsion of unwanted guests or parasitic dynamics
- Clearer energetic borders in your field
- Comfort in your own body, environment, and name

Under Agares, you occupy fully.

5. Acceleration of Decisions and Timing

Agares sharpens your internal clock. He aligns events, clears hesitation, and brings timing into harmony with purpose. Delays dissolve. Openings appear.

This may look like:

- Phone calls at the exact right time
- Offers arriving just after decisions are made
- Documents, contracts, or access clearing unexpectedly
- Internal certainty rising where there was confusion
- Being “in the right place” repeatedly

He does not slow time. He aligns it to you.

6. Mental Speed and Strategic Focus

This power expresses as rapid thought, clearer judgment, and tactical vision. The mind calms while accelerating. Multi-step plans emerge instantly. Arguments become unnecessary—clarity becomes enough.

Signs include:

- Ability to track multiple threads at once
- Increased planning speed
- Calm confidence in pressure
- Faster intuition with less emotional static
- Mental language feels like movement, not struggle

Under this power, hesitation becomes memory.

7. Verbal Banishment of Enemies

Agares does not fight with brute force. He clears paths through verbal displacement. This includes energetic, legal, emotional, or physical enemies. When invoked, he often causes others to retreat, lose interest, or remove themselves.

This power may appear as:

- Conflict resolution without confrontation
- People withdrawing naturally from your field
- Energetic boundaries enforced by speech
- Immediate silence or shift in energy after a firm “no”
- Authority so clear that opposition weakens

Agares does not argue. He commands presence.

8. Grounding Scattered Intent

If you've felt fractured between many tasks, paths, or ideas, this power stabilizes you. He brings momentum into focus and gives your energy a place to land. This is especially powerful for creatives, entrepreneurs, and strategists.

Signs of this power in motion:

- Projects aligning and flowing
- Clearer calendar or scheduling
- Priorities becoming obvious
- Spiritual overwhelm transforming into action
- Energy refocusing on what matters

You no longer spin. You move.

9. Energetic Authority Over Space

Agares's dominion includes the energetic rights of place. This includes homes, land, sacred spaces, and professional environments. Through his current, you can install your will into locations—not to dominate, but to anchor.

This may feel like:

- A room changing tone when you enter
- People listening without interruption
- Your altar or working space gaining new charge
- Others respecting your energetic “yes” and “no”
- Physical spaces adapting to your vision

You are no longer just present. You are installed.

10. Reversal of Spiritual and Physical Exile

The final and often most profound of Agares's powers is the reversal of exile. This can include:

- Ancestral disconnection

- Spiritual loss
- Social banishment
- Energetic fragmentation
- Exclusion from birthright paths

Under this current, you return—not as victim, but as rightful inheritor.

You may notice:

- Opportunities to re-enter old spaces at a higher level
- Lost people reappearing with changed tone
- Access to tools, gifts, or places previously denied
- Internal certainty that says: “I belong here now.”

This is not favor. This is restoration.

Final Alignment

To integrate this lesson, whisper:

*“Agares, commander of speed,
Open the path beneath me.
Return what was lost.
Seal me in movement, speech, and power.”*

Then gaze into his sigil. Let the current answer.
