Ten Forces of Revelation, Restoration, and Retribution

To walk with Andromalius is to hold a lantern in the depths of shadow — a flame that not only illuminates the lie, but burns it from the world. His powers are not suggestions. They are mandates issued from the architecture of divine correction.

When you are attuned to this demon, you are attuned to the sword of karmic balance, a force that does not wait for permission. The powers of Andromalius are immediate, unblinking, and often absolute.

In this lesson, we will explore ten sacred domains where his energy operates with unrelenting precision.

✦ 1. Revelation of Lies

Function: Andromalius exposes falsehoods — spoken, written, energetic. When activated, his power causes liars to contradict themselves, reveal their motives, or be exposed by external events. This applies in personal, business, spiritual, or political contexts.

Real-world example: A client discovered her husband's infidelity within 48 hours of invoking Andromalius — not through suspicion, but through the man's own unexpected confession.

✦ 2. Return of Stolen Objects

Function: This is one of his oldest known powers.

If something material has been stolen, and the invocation is done properly, the object may be returned physically, or its location will be revealed. For spiritual theft (energetic vampirism, stolen ideas, essence), the damage is reversed.

Real-world example: A shopkeeper recovered a missing shipment after reciting Andromalius' mantra over the shipping receipt and sigil for three days.

✦ 3. Unmasking of Hidden Enemies

Function: Traitors, saboteurs, or manipulators often hide in the guise of friendship or neutrality.

Andromalius burns through masks. This is not based on guesswork, but on revelation — names, actions, documents, patterns emerge suddenly.

Real-world example: A woman in a coven discovered a fellow member had been hexing her secretly for months. The culprit's actions were exposed via a misplaced note and a broken mirror — both archetypal signs of Andromalius' current.

✦ 4. Protection from Psychic Theft and Attack

Function: His energy forms a shield that scrambles, reflects, or destroys intrusive psychic attempts.

Entities, spirits, or humans attempting to invade, siphon, or spy will find themselves disoriented or expelled.

Real-world example: After activating his current, a sensitive practitioner stopped experiencing astral intrusion and saw the shadow entity tormenting her dissolve in dream.

◆ 5. Destruction of Fraud and Manipulation

Function: Whether a contract, a romantic manipulation, or financial deceit — Andromalius will break the spell.

This includes spiritual fraud — false prophets, deceitful “healers,” or pretenders of power.

Real-world example: A client discovered her business partner was skimming funds. The moment she began invoking Andromalius, an accountant error led to the exposure — within days.

◆ 6. Psychic Disentanglement

Function: When energetic cords bind you to a toxic person or event, Andromalius can cut the unseen tether.

The detachment is usually sudden, clean, and irreversible. Dreams may carry closure or emotional purging.

Real-world example: A man who could not stop obsessing over an ex-partner found complete relief after 21 days of invocation. The dreams ceased, and the bond broke.

◆ 7. Legal and Karmic Clarification

Function: Andromalius does not replace earthly law — but he can illuminate truth where confusion or misjudgment clouds it.

He also brings karmic visibility: Why is this happening? Who is truly at fault?

Real-world example: A client wrongfully accused in a civil suit saw the judge abruptly switch perspective after an unplanned testimony surfaced — three days into her invocation.

✦ 8. Exposure of Contracts or Pacts Made in Deceit

Function: Sometimes, you enter agreements or alliances under false impressions — in magic, business, or love.

Andromalius reveals if any pact has been built on dishonesty and allows for clean exit or reversal.

Real-world example: A magician discovered a supposed angelic pact was in fact a siphoning pact with a trickster spirit. He annulled the pact under Andromalius' gaze.

✦ 9. Aura Purification and Mirror Field Creation

Function: The aura under Andromalius becomes reflective. What approaches with falsehood is bounced or revealed.

This “mirror field” is a defense, but also a warning system. People behave strangely around it — the truth-sick grow nervous or agitated.

Real-world example: A therapist noted clients began confessing unprompted or became agitated in session. Her energetic field, realigned through Andromalius, had become intolerable to repression.

✦ 10. Restoration of Inner Truth and Discernment

Function: Perhaps the most subtle power. When you are aligned with Andromalius, your inner compass sharpens.

You begin to feel what is false, distorted, or manipulative — not through logic, but through knowing.

Real-world example: An artist plagued by indecision began hearing clear internal direction after invoking the demon. She said, “It was like my lies couldn't speak louder than my truth anymore.”

✦ Combined Field Effect

When several of these powers are activated at once, your environment enters a state of rapid clarity. Expect:

- Relationship shifts
- Unexpected confessions
- Lost things recovered
- Emotional purging
- Exposure of long-hidden agendas

Do not resist this clearing. It is not chaos. It is order correcting itself.
