The Grimoire of Bathin - The Armored Path of Knowing

The Struggles You Face—and How Bathin Resolves Them

- Feeling lost on the astral path - Many seekers enter meditation or trance but feel disoriented, unsure where they are going. Bathin is the Astral Pathfinder, offering maps and direction. Example: one initiate described wandering aimlessly in dream-visions until Bathin guided them to a vivid temple where they received clear teachings.

- Difficulty influencing from a distance – Practitioners often want to support loved ones far away but feel powerless. Bathin governs distance influence. Example: a mother invoked him to send protection to her child studying abroad and later reported the child described feeling “calm and shielded” during a crisis.
- Losing parts of oneself – Trauma, exhaustion, or spiritual attack can fragment the soul. Bathin retrieves what is lost. Example: an initiate who felt “empty” after heartbreak petitioned Bathin and dreamed of receiving back a glowing fragment of themselves, waking with renewed vitality.
- Confusion in reading the body’s signals – Many seekers cannot interpret their own energy anatomy. Bathin teaches inner divination. Example: a practitioner struggling with recurring illness used Bathin’s guidance and identified blocked energy centers; soon after, their healing work became far more effective.
- Disconnect from nature’s medicines – Herbal spirits are often overlooked or misunderstood. Bathin reveals their intelligence. Example: a student once drawn to plants without knowing why reported that after invoking Bathin, they began dreaming of specific herbs, which later proved medicinally effective.
- Vulnerability during transitions – Moving homes, changing jobs, or shifting spiritual practice can leave one ungrounded. Bathin shields these transitions. Example: one initiate relocated to a new country and described Bathin’s presence as a “cloak” of stability during the upheaval.
- Feeling abandoned or exiled – Some seekers feel spiritually “cut off.” Bathin stabilizes the exiled self. Example: a practitioner in deep grief invoked Bathin and later reported dreams of being “led back home” to their own soul.
- Dreams that feel chaotic – Many have powerful dreams they cannot understand. Bathin maps dreams into clarity. Example: an initiate recorded jumbled dream fragments; after petitioning Bathin, they began seeing dreams unfold as structured journeys with beginning, middle, and end.

Bathin resolves these struggles by acting as a guide, healer, and protector across both the astral and the physical roads of life.
