

The Radiant Spiral – Infernal Attunement To Buer

Posted on August 28, 2025 by Rhyon Hyroc

Enter the Spiral of Healing and Sovereignty: Buer

Buer is the Spiral Healer, the Infernal Strategist, the guardian of resilience and restorer of clarity. His current flows not as chaos, but as ordered spiral intelligence—repairing what is broken, detoxifying what is poisoned, and grounding the initiate in wisdom that bends but never breaks.

The course Attunement + Grimoire of Buer opens this current to you. It is not mere theory—it is structured initiation: an alignment of body, mind, and spirit into Buer's spiral of repair, clarity, and resilience.

Why Walk with Buer?

Because healing is not always soft. Sometimes it is fire that purifies, spiral logic that reorganizes, and clarity that cuts through confusion.

Walking with Buer brings:

- Physical Healing and Regeneration – Many initiates report improvement in mobility, pain relief, or recovery from long-standing conditions after entering his spiral. His current reorders physical systems with precision.
- Pain Dissolution – Buer is renowned for untangling the knot of pain, whether chronic or sudden. His spiral loosens constriction and releases pressure in both body and mind.
- Strategic Insight and Clear Judgment – As Infernal Strategist, Buer sharpens perception, enabling initiates to cut through complexity and act with confidence.
- Herbal Mastery – Buer governs the language of plants. Those under his current often find sudden intuition about herbs, formulas, and natural cures.
- Mental Resilience – His spiral fortifies the mind, dissolving cycles of weakness, confusion, or despair into grounded stability.
- Energetic Purification – Buer is a master of toxin detection, both physical and spiritual. His spiral cleanses poisons, wards against invasive energies, and restores clarity.
- Protective Spiral Fields – Under his current, initiates learn to establish boundary fields of protection that repel intrusion and stabilize the aura.

- Guidance in Recovery - After trauma—physical, emotional, or magical—Buer restores function and returns balance, aligning the initiate with renewal.

To know Buer is to live in spiral alignment, where every wound can be repaired, every knot untangled, every toxin burned away.

Inside the Course: What You Will Experience

Grimoire - The Armored Path of Knowing

Before Buer's spiral enters you, your system must be grounded and prepared. This module lays the foundation, aligning you with his current of healing and philosophy.

You will:

- Encounter Buer's identity as the Spiral Healer and Infernal Strategist, the demon whose current restores health, strengthens resilience, and clarifies judgment.
- Explore his archetype as the Spiral Guardian—one who turns chaos into order and pain into wisdom.
- Study the ten gifts of Buer's spiral power: from pain relief and detox to insight, resilience, and herbal mastery.
- Construct an optional altar—a spiral temple anchoring his current into your physical space.
- Craft Buerenial Essence (optional sacred oil), used to align your body with his current during meditation or petition.

- Learn his planetary and zodiac correspondences, sigil, regency dates, element, gemstone, animal, and legions. These symbols act as precise gateways for invocation.
- Study his symbiosis and adversity with other demons, learning where his current supports and where it opposes.
- Examine real-world cases of Buer's influence: initiates overcoming illnesses, receiving sudden herbal insight, or finding unexpected clarity in complex crises.
- Practice a guided meditation, designed to recalibrate your body and mind into readiness for spiral initiation.

This is the armor of readiness—without it, the spiral cannot be received in its purity.

Attunement – The Ignition of Sovereign Fire

Here begins the lived initiation: the 21-day cycle of spiral alignment.

You will:

- Recite Buer's sacred formula daily before his sigil, three times with posture and presence. Simple in appearance, this practice becomes transformative in discipline.
- Anchor spiral intelligence into body and breath, allowing his current to re-pattern cellular memory and mental structure.
- Be reinforced by seven remote rituals conducted by the Terra Incognita masters. These open dimensional gateways, weaving the spiral deeper into your subtle body.

- Experience signs of integration: pain suddenly dissolving, emotional toxins surfacing and clearing, dreams filled with herbal codes or spiraling patterns, and sudden flashes of clarity during stress.
- Learn to recognize and manage these signs: understanding when release feels like discomfort, and when detox feels like confrontation.
- Accept the discipline: miss a single day and the cycle restarts. This is Buer's law of alignment—spiral intelligence does not allow fracture or compromise.

By day 21, initiates report their lives reorganized: pain lessened, judgment sharper, energy lighter, resilience stronger.

Rituals & Tools of Strategic Dominion

When the spiral is fully integrated, you receive access to Buer's arsenal: 20 living petitions, each one a key to healing, protection, and insight.

Each petition contains a spoken formula, a clear invocation, and a practical application in daily life.

Highlights include:

- The Spiral of Repair – Entering Buer's current to accelerate physical healing and regeneration after illness or injury.
- Untangling the Knot – Calling Buer's spiral to dissolve stubborn pain, whether physical, emotional, or energetic.

These petitions are more than requests—they are strategic tools, weapons of healing and clarity that can be used whenever the spiral is needed.

The Legion Commanders of Buer

Buer’s dominion is vast, but he does not govern it alone. His Legion Commanders carry and extend his spiral current, each embodying a specialized gift.

- Thoval – Healer of the Flesh and Master of Herbs: Governs physical repair, herbal cures, and the restoration of vitality.
- Kireth – Illuminator of the Mind and Teacher of Wisdom: Brings philosophy, insight, and clarity of judgment.
- Moriel – Guardian of the Wounded Spirit and Restorer of Balance: Heals emotional injury and aligns fractured spirits.
- Zerak – Dissolver of Toxins and Purifier of Body and Aura: Burns poisons from flesh and field, restoring purity.
- Velthar – Revealer of Medicinal Secrets and Guide to Nature’s Cures: Whispers forgotten plant-lore and unveils hidden remedies.
- Auron – Protector of Travelers and Guardian of Journeys: Wards those on paths of danger, ensuring safe passage and resilience.

To align with Buer’s commanders is to enter his council of spiral wisdom—an order of healers, philosophers, and guardians who magnify his sovereignty across realms.

Step Into the Spiral

Buer is not a gentle healer. His spiral burns, detoxifies, dissolves, and reorders. He strips away poisons to reveal clarity, resilience, and strength. His is the path of living restoration: painful at times, purifying always, and liberating beyond measure.
